

Code of Conduct

Cayman Pharma, Czech Republic

Responsibility

- All employees of Cayman Pharma are responsible for the accuracy and correctness of the information provided in connection with products and processes.

Regulatory Compliance

- All employees of Cayman Pharma comply with applicable laws, regulations, and GMP principles where required.

Accountability

- All employees of Cayman Pharma exercise sound judgment and ethical conduct. If we make a mistake, we report it to our supervisor, take responsibility, and strive to remedy it.

Transparency

- All marketing, financial, quality, and technical information must comply with industry standards, without misleading, false, or dishonest context in the information provided.

Openness

- Cayman Pharma ensures a safe, respectful, and diverse environment for all employees, partners, and customers.

Integrity

- All employees of Cayman Pharma are evaluated based on their performance regardless of gender, age, origin, religion, sexual orientation, physical appearance, disability, or union membership.

Support

- Cayman Pharma promotes equal opportunities together with the development of talent and leaders, providing conditions for both professional and personal growth for all employees. In return, it expects its employees to always strive to achieve the highest standards in both their work and personal conduct.